For Immediate Release:

Investmark Supports Lockwood Mathews Museum Event

Advisors Jay Diamond and Nicholas Christie, along with Director of Operations Scott Williams performed jazz and swing standards at the Lockwood Mathews Mansion Museum recently. The music was part of the reception for the "Coney Island: Visions from the Boardwalk" art exhibit, hosted by Investmark client Gail Ingis-Claus. Ms. Ingis-Claus is very active in supporting the restoration and fund raising efforts at Lockwood Mathews Museum, a National Historic Landmark located in Norwalk CT.

The Lockwood-Mathews Museum

Investmark has been a proud sponsor of previous exhibits at the Mansion, but this is the first time that included live music from these Investmark Principals (Jay Diamond-Keyboards, Nick Christie-Drums, Scott Williams- Guitar). The event also included a wonderful display of swing dancing from the multi-talented hostess, whose paintings are on exhibit throughout the Mansion. If that's not enough, she also signed copies of her novel "Indigo Sky." The reception was a great success and a number of guests joined Ms. Ingis-Claus on the dance floor!

The paintings were inspired by Ms. Ingis-Claus lifetime of loving memories of Coney Island. Ms. Ingis-Claus' work has been exhibited throughout the region including: the Fairfield Arts Council, Lyme Association, Madison Art Society, Guilford Art League, Barnes & Noble, both Westport, CT and Paramus, NJ, among others.
